

Acme Corp - Expense Reimbursement Policy

Policy ID: ACME-FIN-001

Effective Date: January 1, 2026

Last Revised: January 1, 2026

Approved By: Michael Torres, VP of Finance

Applies To: All Acme Corp employees incurring business-related expenses

1. Purpose

This policy outlines the procedures and guidelines for reimbursement of legitimate business expenses incurred by Acme Corp employees. All employees are expected to exercise reasonable judgment and fiscal responsibility when incurring expenses on behalf of the company.

2. General Principles

- All expenses must be business-related and serve a legitimate company purpose.
- Employees must seek the most cost-effective option that meets business requirements.
- Expenses must be pre-approved when required by this policy.
- Original receipts (digital or physical) are required for all expenses $25 and above.
- Reimbursement requests must be submitted within 30 calendar days of incurring the expense.
- Expenses older than 60 days will not be reimbursed without VP-level approval.

3. Approval Thresholds

Expense Amount	Approval Required
Up to $100	Direct manager
$101 - $500	Direct manager + Department head
$501 - $2,500	Department head + VP of Finance
Over $2,500	VP of Finance + CFO

Pre-approval is required for all anticipated expenses over $500. Submit a Pre-Approval Request via the Acme Expense Portal before incurring the expense.

4. Travel Expenses

4.1 Air Travel

- All air travel must be booked in economy class for domestic flights.
- Business class may be booked for international flights exceeding 6 hours with pre-approval from the VP of Finance.
- Flights should be booked at least 14 days in advance when possible to secure lower fares.
- Acme Corp's preferred airline is Delta Airlines; employees earn company rewards when booking through the Acme Travel Portal.

4.2 Ground Transportation

Mode	Guideline
Rental car	Economy or compact class; pre-
Rideshare (Uber/Lyft)	Permitted for airport transfer
Personal vehicle	Reimbursed at the IRS standard
Parking & tolls	Reimbursable with receipts
Public transit	Fully reimbursable

4.3 Lodging

- Hotel stays should not exceed $200 per night for domestic travel and $300 per night for international travel, excluding taxes and fees.
- Employees should use the Acme Travel Portal to book from preferred hotel partners.
- Extended stays (5+ nights) require pre-approval from the department head.
- Sharing accommodations is encouraged for team travel events to reduce costs.

4.4 Meals During Travel

Per-meal reimbursement limits during business travel:

Meal	Domestic Limit	International Limit
Breakfast	$20	$30
Lunch	$30	$40
Dinner	$50	$70

Daily maximum: $100 domestic / $140 international (exclusive of team dinners; see Section 5).

- Alcohol is not reimbursable during individual meals. Alcohol may be included in team dinner budgets at manager discretion (see Section 5.2).
- Tips are reimbursable up to 20% of the pre-tax meal cost.

4.5 Incidentals

A daily incidental allowance of $15 is provided for miscellaneous travel expenses (e.g., tips for porters, laundry for trips exceeding 3 nights). No receipts required for incidentals.

5. Meals and Entertainment

5.1 Business Meals (Non-Travel)

Meals with clients, partners, or candidates are reimbursable up to $75 per person with the following documentation:

- Names and titles of all attendees
- Business purpose of the meal
- Restaurant name and location
- Itemized receipt

5.2 Team Events and Dinners

- Team meals and events require pre-approval from the department head.
- Budget guideline: $60 per person for team dinners.
- Alcohol is permitted at team events at manager discretion, within the per-person budget.

5.3 Client Entertainment

Client entertainment expenses (e.g., event tickets, golf outings) require pre-approval from the VP of Finance and are limited to $150 per client per event.

6. Office and Work Supplies

6.1 Standard Office Supplies

Standard office supplies (pens, notebooks, paper, etc.) should be ordered through the Acme Office Manager. Direct purchases are reimbursable up to $50 per quarter without pre-approval.

6.2 Software and Subscriptions

- Software and subscription purchases must be pre-approved by IT and the employee's manager.
- Annual subscriptions over $200 require VP approval.
- Acme Corp maintains enterprise licenses for standard tools; check with IT before purchasing individually.

6.3 Books and Learning Materials

Work-related books and learning materials are reimbursable up to $200 per calendar year without pre-approval. Requests exceeding this amount should be submitted through the Professional Development program (see Benefits Overview, ACME-HR-007).

7. Professional Development

Expenses for conferences, workshops, courses, and certifications are covered under the Acme Corp Professional Development Program:

- Annual budget per employee: $2,000
- Includes registration fees, travel, and accommodation
- Requires pre-approval from the employee's manager and HR
- See Benefits Overview (ACME-HR-007) for full details

8. Home Office Expenses

See the Remote Work Policy (ACME-HR-002) for details on:

- One-time $500 home office setup stipend (fully remote employees)
- Monthly $75 internet and utilities stipend (all remote/hybrid employees)

These stipends are paid automatically and do not require expense reports.

9. How to Submit an Expense Report

9.1 Submission Process

1. Log into the Acme Expense Portal (expenses.acmecorp.com).
2. Create a new expense report with a descriptive title (e.g., "Q1 Sales Conference - Chicago").
3. Add each expense line item with:

- Date of expense
 - Category (travel, meals, supplies, etc.)
 - Amount
 - Business purpose
 - Receipt (photo or PDF upload)
4. Submit for approval.

9.2 Approval Workflow

1. Direct manager reviews and approves/rejects within 5 business days.
2. For amounts over $500, the report routes to additional approvers per Section 3.
3. Finance processes approved reports within 10 business days.
4. Reimbursement is deposited via direct deposit on the next regular payroll cycle.

9.3 Rejected Expenses

If an expense is rejected, the employee will receive a notification with the reason. The employee may revise and resubmit the expense with additional documentation or justification.

10. Corporate Credit Cards

10.1 Eligibility

Corporate credit cards are issued to employees at the Director level and above, or to employees who incur frequent business expenses exceeding $500 per month on average.

10.2 Usage Rules

- Corporate cards are for business expenses only; personal use is strictly prohibited.
- All corporate card transactions must be reconciled in the Acme Expense Portal within 15 days of the transaction date.
- Lost or stolen cards must be reported to Finance immediately at finance@acmecorp.com or extension x4600.

11. Non-Reimbursable Expenses

The following expenses are not reimbursable under any circumstances:

- Personal entertainment or recreation
- Traffic fines, parking tickets, or moving violations
- Airline upgrades (unless pre-approved for international business class per Section 4.1)
- Spouse or companion travel expenses
- Pet care or kennel fees during travel
- Personal clothing or grooming
- Gym memberships
- Political contributions
- Charitable donations (see Acme Corp community giving program separately)
- Co-working space memberships (unless pre-approved per Remote Work Policy)

12. Expense Fraud

Falsifying expense reports or submitting personal expenses as business expenses is considered serious misconduct and may result in:

- Immediate repayment of the fraudulent amount
- Disciplinary action up to and including termination
- Legal action if warranted

All expense reports are subject to random audit by the Finance department.

13. Policy Compliance and Questions

Employees with questions about this policy should contact the Finance department at finance@acmecorp.com or extension x4600.

This policy is subject to change at the discretion of Acme Corp management. Employees will be notified of material changes via email and the Acme HR Portal.
